Former employees file suit against Coast Electric, seeking $2.2 million

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT
Henry Thomas, general manager of Coast Electric Power Association in Bay St. Louis, has not yet been served with a $2.2 million lawsuit filed against the company, but claims the plaintiffs are attempting to try the case in the news media.

Former Coast Electric employees David Wiggins and Gerald Saucier, who say they were fired to cover up fraud at the company, are plaintiffs in the lawsuit filed Wednesday in U.S. District Court in Gulfport.

Thomas expects to be officially served sometime this week.

The plaintiffs are asking reinstatement to their jobs, $1.2 million in damages for alleged denial of due process and $1 million for a stockholders' derivative action for the association.

Thomas says he thinks the action is being brought against him and the co-directors both collectively and individually.

The lawsuit reportedly charges that prior to plaintiffs' discharge, Coast Electric had become the target of an investigation by the Rural Electrification Administration for irregularities in the conduct of the corporation's operations and activities.

Thomas said Friday that this charge is completely untrue, that the 'investigation' referred to was part of REA's regular program of auditing work.

"The Coast Electric audit," Thomas said, "was the second of 97 Office of Inspector General audits that I am aware of. There may have been more."

The audit took place during a two-week period beginning July 12, 1982.

The two men claim they were unfairly fired associated with the circulation of a list of complaints against the utility which were presented to board member James Rester, Thomas said.

Thomas said he met with Rester and other board members on Aug. 28 to discuss the list, and that he met with Wiggins and Saucier on Aug. 29 to discuss their involvement with the complaints.

Both Wiggins and Saucier were fired on Aug. 30 and informed that they could appeal their dismissal to the board, Thomas said.

Thomas said they appeared before the board that evening and asserted their innocence, and that their attorney requested and was granted a second hearing with the two employees on Sept. 27.

In response to allegations that pay raises were held up in an effort to intimidate other employees, Thomas said that annual pay adjustments were approved by the board on Sept. 27, the same evening as the formal hearing.

Thomas denied instigating a letter of support for management from Coast Electric employees. He said the first he knew of any such letter was when he received a copy during the week of Oct. 26 while he was at home recuperating from a broken shoulder.

Of Coast Electric's 140 full-time employees, 129 signed a letter directed to REA.

Following Wiggins' and Saucier's dismissal, Thomas said he wrote REA and requested that representatives be sent to review all charges and records concerning any allegations against himself and other employees.

Thomas said they found no basis in the allegations.

A letter from Joseph R. Binder, Director of the Southeast Area for REA, notes that based on conclusions developed by the REA from staff and our review of current information available to us, no further action is planned at this time.

Federal, local lawmen scramble after bogus plane crash report

By ELLIS CUEVAS
The Hancock County sheriff's office received a call from the Picaune Police department reporting the crash of a large airplane (a DC-4) at 5:41 p.m. on Wednesday according to Alvin Ladner, Hancock County investigator.

Local and federal authorities checked on the crash reported to be on the Hancock and Pearl River County border near Hwy. 43.

On Friday, Brian Spaulding, a Picaune patrolman gave this report, "A man in a vehicle heard over (citizens-band radio) channel-19 there was a plane crash. He was close to our police station, came in and gave our dispatcher the information."

"Police, ambulance and fire units were directed to the area. A short while later, a resident called the police department saying he had landed his plane on a private landing strip," Spaulding continued and added, "This apparently was a big mistake."

On the local scene, Ladner said, "Lillian Roberts, Hancock dispatcher, was told by Picaune police a plane had crashed some four or five miles from Picaune in Hancock County."

Ladner, who was on call, was notified by Roberts about the call and Hancock sheriff patrol units were directed to the alleged area on Hwy. 43.

"Mrs. Roberts later received a call from the Pearl River sheriff's office indicating there was a small plane which landed on a small private runway in that county, and to cancel the search," Ladner added.

"This was followed by another call from the Pearl River sheriff's department in just a few minutes wanting to know if the Hancock County deputies had found out anything," Ladner added.

the items reported stolen have been recovered. The interior of the home was apparently shot up with a 22-caliber rifle, as well as a swimming pool.

Among the items first reported missing were a turkey, television set, stereo system, frozen meats, frozen food items and canned goods, Seay stated.

"Damages to the home and swimming pool will probably amount to quite a bit," Seay indicated on Saturday. DSeay is being assisted by Glen Strong, Hancock deputy, in the investigation.

Two youths arrested in connection with burglary

By ELLIS CUEVAS
Two 15-year-olds were arrested in connection with the Monday night burglary and damages to a Bay Side Park residence, according to Delbert Seay, Hancock County investigator.

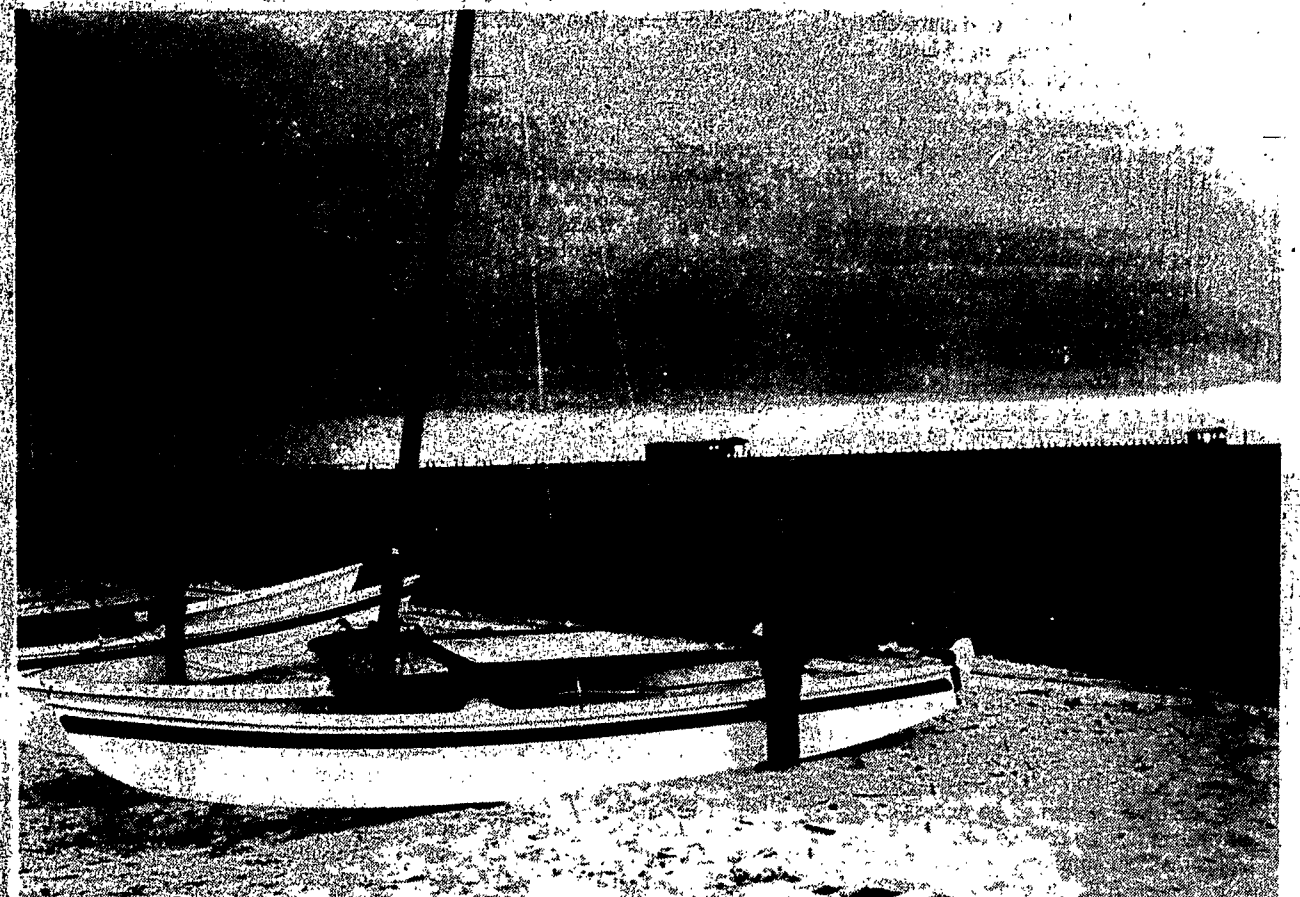

Seay reported one of the youths was arrested on Wednesday and the other on Friday.

Both were turned over to the Hancock County Youth Court authorities.

Seay said, "The owner of the home was Jenanne delCastillo and some of

Jourdan River residents plan to protest wastewater proposal

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT
Jourdan River Subdivision residents are concerned about plans to discharge Waveland sewage into the Jourdan River, Dr. James Bordelon said Friday.

Bordelon, an orthodontist from Thibodeaux, La. who owns a home in the subdivision off Washington Road, says that plans to upgrade the wastewater facilities in Waveland call for extending the sewage discharge line and discharging sewage into the river only 30 feet from the pier where his children swim, waterski and fish.

"That would, of course, mean a monetary loss to me," Bordelon said.

"But everyone in the area would lose the natural beauty," he stated.

Bordelon said he found out about the plan earlier this week.

He and his neighbor Mike Reynolds have tried to contact all residents in the area and hope to have a large group representing area residents when a public hearing on the matter is held at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Waveland Library on Coleman Avenue.

The hearing on the 201-206 Plan is being conducted by Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District.

After it is approved and wastewater management authority is officially transferred from Gulf Coast Regional Wastewater Authority to WRWMD, the district will be able to request grant funds from state and federal governments to help pay the cost of facility upgrading in Waveland and Bay St. Louis.

Copies of the 201-206 document are available for perusal at the public libraries in Waveland and Bay St. Louis.

Earlier this month, Wastewater District Administrator Ethel Schott said the document shows the different alternatives that were reviewed in developing the final plan, and noted that those alternatives are still available.

Bordelon said, "We're upset because we're not part of Waveland's sewer system, we don't vote in Waveland and Waveland has no jurisdiction."

"We want to present our side of the story," he said, "and, hopefully, get them to change their proposal."

Even though the sewage is treated before discharge, Bordelon expressed concern.

"If you don't undertreat the sewage, you kill the fish," he said, "And if you overtreat the sewage, you kill the fish, too."

Supreme Court refuses to hear Rippetoe appeal

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT
R.D. (Bob) Rippetoe, of Pass Christian turned himself in to Hancock County Sheriff's Office officials early Friday morning after the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review his case, according to SO Investigator Delbert Seay.

Rippetoe, 37, has about four months left to serve of a six-month sentence imposed when he was found guilty in 1981 of falsifying a bill for work his firm, Bay Contractors, Inc., performed for the Hancock County School District.

The suit rose from a contract for repair work at Gulfview Elementary School after it was damaged by a tornado in 1980.

Rippetoe was sentenced to one year in the county jail, with six months suspension if he worked on public projects, paid a fine of $14,520 and $4,480 in restitution to the school district.

Rippetoe lost an appeal to the state Supreme Court and began serving his sentence in August, 1983.

After serving seven weeks in jail, Rippetoe was released under $10,000 bond when his case was appealed to the US Supreme Court.

Rippetoe's attorney, Norman Brendal of Gulfport, said yesterday that the US Supreme Court refused to review the case.

Fraud trial of Mayor begins tomorrow

The trial of Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett on charges of fraud and conspiracy is scheduled to be heard tomorrow in Hancock County Circuit Court.

His trial has been postponed twice. Bennett is accused of using labor and materials from a street project for work on his home during the summer of 1978.

He is also charged with conspiring with Donn Murray, then city project inpector, to perform the work and represent it as authorized expenditures for city construction.

Also scheduled for Monday is State v. Jay B. Cunningham.

Cunningham, of New Orleans, was one of four men who escaped from the Hancock County Jail Oct. 21.

He was serving a life sentence for rape and also faced charges of kidnapping and armed robbery when he escaped.

He had not been transferred to the state penitentiary because his case had been appealed.

Several other cases are scheduled for hearing next week by Circuit Judge James Thomas, including a revocation of probation of Neal Wilkerson, who was arrested Wednesday on charges of armed robbery of the Junior Food Store at Main Street and St. Francis in Bay St. Louis.

Owner of trailer full of furnishings sought

By ELLIS CUEVAS
The owner of the contents of a U-Haul Trailer found on Thanksgiving at High Point near Logtown is being sought, according to Dennis Tartavouille, Hancock County deputy sheriff.

Tartavouille said, "Danny White, Glenn Estabro, Anthony Alexis, were hunting at High Point on Thanksgiving, and found a 6x12 foot U-Haul Trailer on the abandoned road. Clothing, household furniture, appliances, and kids' toys were tossed all over the place."

White and Alexis are both Hancock County investigators, who on Saturday reported to have been found as to how the trailer got into the woods or who the owner may be.

list the trailer as missing," Tartavouille stated.

Further checks are being made through the U-Haul agency and the military, as information gathered at the scene indicated the owner may have been a U.S. Marine stationed recently in Texas.

The items in the area were gathered, and the U-Haul trailer was removed from the wooded area by Lawson's Auto Repair and Wrecker Service.

The case is being handled by Tartavouille and Delbert Seay, Hancock County investigators, who on Saturday reported to have been found as to how the trailer got into the woods or who the owner may be.

World's Fair Council seeks performing artists

Mississippi musicians, dancers and actors have an opportunity to perform for the 1984 World's Fair through the Performing Arts Program of the Mississippi Pavilion.

Officials of the Mississippi World's Fair Council will accept applications from performing artists until Jan. 15, 1984.

The invitation, entitled "Mississippi's Encore '84," entails a comprehensive search for the best of Mississippi performers from all areas of the state.

Programs will be presented at the pavilion each day for 184 days of the Fair in multiple staging areas.

Interested participants should contact the MWFCI by calling toll-free number 1-800-962-1984 for application forms and eligibility requirements.

A resume, photograph and recent recording of the group must accompany the application.

The recording can be a phonograph record, cassette tape or video tape, five to seven minutes in length.

The performing arts committee will evaluate applications and notify participants of acceptance.

Detailed performing information will follow, after scheduling of all entertainment has been made.

Suit

Thomas said he wrote again to REA Friday, saying that if they consider any further investigation to be necessary, he desires it to be carried out.

Thomas, an employee of Coast Electric since 1970, has been general manager since 1973.

Wiggins has worked for the company 11 years, Saucier for 14.

Both men had jobs as staking technicians, Thomas said, and until about a year ago, there were no problems with either man.

"As far as work records are concerned, they seemed to be doing an excellent job," he said.

In a letter dated Sept. 6 to Ann Lazara, Bay St. Louis attorney, who is representing Wiggins and Saucier, Thomas said the men, "either through design or becoming victimized, failed to conduct themselves personally and professionally in accord with ethical standards expected of their employment."

"Their activities," the letter continues, "and their failure to maintain loyalty toward fellow employees, compounded by the apparent use of Association records not required in the performance of their duties, and for reasons not in the best interest of the Association and the best interest of their fellow employees, required the action taken, which involved a complete investigation of the entire matter, and resulted in their termination."

"The two former employees were not dismissed without cause," Thomas said, "which will be fully disclosed in the courts of law."

Thomas said he has never misused association funds, materials or facilities for personal gain.

"I have only enjoyed the benefits of an excellent company that are granted to all other employees."

"We will prove in court," he said, "that these benefits have in fact been enjoyed by at least one of the plaintiffs."

"It is unfortunate and very hard to dismiss any employee for any reason."

"However, my position as manager requires me to look at the best interests of all of Coast Electric and all of its employees."

"As a result, it sometimes becomes necessary for me to take action which I may prefer not to do."

"I will not sit idly by and let good dedicated employees be accused of acts attacking their character which are completely untrue."

Thomas said there is a long-standing unwritten cooperative agreement at the company that employees may use facilities, tools and equipment during their time off.

Yesterday afternoon Gerald Saucier denied that he and Wiggins were using the news media to try the case.

"That's not true," he said.

"We didn't want it to go this far. I just wanted to get my name cleared so I could get another job."

"I was dismissed because for the last three years something like this has come up at Coast Electric."

"I was used as a scapegoat to shut other people up," he said.

Saucier said that a number of employees were complaining and that arguments at a company Christmas party year before last led to fistfights.

Saucier reiterated his claims that company employees are moonlighting—using company vehicles on company time as well as off duty hours to contract their own jobs."

He said he asked Thomas to bring his accusers before him and show him the evidence, and that Thomas said "the only way was through a court order."

"He claims he has several statements, and if he does, they better know what they're doing," Saucier said.

Coast Electric, whose headquarters are in Bay St. Louis, serves 33,000-plus customers in parts of Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties, according to Thomas, primarily outside municipal areas.

Why We Are Building A New Hospital...

The construction of a new hospital for Hancock County has been much in the news lately. In order to clarify many points and questions being asked by the public, the Hancock

General Hospital Board of Trustees would like to take this means to answer some of these questions.

Did You Know

1. Hancock General Hospital was built in 1960 as a 36-bed facility, with support services for those 36 beds. In 1964, 20 additional beds were added, but no provisions were made to expand the support services.

2. The present facility utilizes 29,700 square feet of space, but current services and needed additional services require at least 65,000 square feet of space.

3. At the present facility, there is a traffic problem due to a lack of improvements to Dunbar Avenue and the traffic from the elementary school across the street. The shopping center at Dunbar Avenue and Highway 90 has created additional traffic problems.

4. During Hurricane Camille in 1969, Hancock General did not receive any flood waters, but became inaccessible due to flood waters filling lowlying areas surrounding the hospital and blocking access roads.

5. According to a building evaluation study done in 1981 by Nix, Mann and Associates, Inc., of Atlanta, Georgia, by request of Hospital Corporation of America, the electrical systems and equipment at Hancock General were found to be in relatively poor condition. Repair and updating would be difficult in many instances due to inaccessibility of parts and ceilings.

6. The mechanical systems in the present building, according to the same study, are 17-23 years old, approaching or exceeding the normal life expectancy of most of the equipment. It is not unreasonable to have major expenditures to replace or make major repairs to the equipment within the next few years.

7. According to an economic profile of Hancock County prepared by the Mississippi Research and Development Center, population in the county is estimated to increase from 24,592 to 32,000, or 18%, by 1990. Bay St. Louis, with a present population of 7,850, will see an estimated 20% increase to 9,850. Waveland, with 4,223 now, will increase to approximately 6,000, or 30%. Therefore, a new facility should be located in the most heavily populated geographical area, which is the twin cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

8. Renovation of the present building would take two years, during which time the hospital could not be operational due to a disruption of services and personnel. There would also be no improvement in flow patterns, and the old systems would be difficult to change due to the present layout, i.e., use of the main corridor for visitors, emergency equipment, post surgery and delivery patients, location of the nursery, etc.

9. In order to correct the deficiencies in the present building, it would cost approximately $4.5 million, while the addition of 30,000 square feet would cost another $4.5 million, and these figures do not include the cost of new equipment, estimated at $4 million, or the financing cost itself.

CONCLUSION:

Therefore, a new hospital facility is necessary according to the following major reasons:

- A. The cost of upgrading the present facility.
- B. The difficulty of adding to the existing structure.
- C. The age of the original building and systems.

D. The potential benefits of relocating the hospital on a site which would be closer to the geographically most populated areas of the members of the community which it serves.

E. The lack of disruption of health care services during construction and renovation.

Bay police take bicycle thwart robber's getaway

By NAN PATTON EHRRICHT
Bay St. Louis police thwarted an armed robbery at a Junior Food Store Wednesday by unknowingly removing the suspect's means of getaway.

Neal M. Wilkerson, 20, of 140 Sheila Drive, Bay St. Louis, is being held at the Hancock County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond after being charged with one count of armed robbery of the Junior Food Store at the intersection of Main and St. Francis Streets, based on Hancock County Jail records.

Capt. Robert Butler and Officer Gary Crump were patrolling late Wednesday evening when they found an abandoned bicycle in the woods adjacent to St. Francis Street between Union and Easterbrook Streets, they said.

Butler said afterwards that he felt the situation was "strange," and when they took the bicycle to the police station he told the dispatcher not to give it to anyone that night but to keep it until the next day.

Butler and Crump went back out on patrol and were on their way towards a grocery store shortly before midnight when they heard the robbery report on their car radio, they said.

The two men immediately went back to the woods via Dunbar Avenue, passing the Junior Food Store where the clerk Erica Knutson was standing outside waving at them, Butler said.

Assisted by other Bay units, a Waveland Police Department unit and a Hancock County Sheriff's Office unit, the officers searched Commagere Park and found and arrested Wilkerson, Butler reported.

When arrested, Wilkerson was wearing a heavy layer of women's makeup around his eyes, Butler said.

Police Chief Douglas Williams and Butler said, the robber, armed with a knife, took $41 from the cash register and then went into another room and took the clerk's pocketbook, which contained about $70.

Bay police have a homemade mask made from brown fabric with eye-holes cut in it that the suspect allegedly wore during the holdup and threw away in the woods afterwards, Williams reported.

They have also recovered the clerk's pocketbook which the suspect also threw into the woods.

The knife used in the robbery has not yet been recovered.

Williams credited Butler's intuitive quick thinking with the arrest.

If Butler had not returned to the site immediately, Williams said, the suspect would have got away and could not have been identified.

Scientific society to present awards

The Gulf Coast Chapter of Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Friday, will conduct its 25th anniversary banquet at the Holiday Inn-Airport in Gulfport.

The program includes presentation of the Kaminski Award for an outstanding published contribution in 1982; the Gulf Coast science and Mathematics Teacher's Award for 1983 to honor a local high school teacher for outstanding dedication to the teaching of science or mathematics; and the Librarian's Certificate of Recognition to recognize a librarian who has provided noteworthy support to research scientists and engineers.

Recipients of these awards are Dr. Chen-Lung Chen, U.S. Geological Survey and Dr. Ming-Yang Su, Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity; Mrs. Louise Hayles, retired from Moss Point High School; and Katharine R. Wallace, Naval Oceanographic Office, respectively.

In addition, 20 new members will be initiated and new officers will be installed.

Dr. Ralph W. Powe, associate vice-president of research at Mississippi State University, will present a lecture on science and engineering education at the high school and college levels.

Members and spouses are cordially invited to attend. Reservations are required on or before Monday, and should be sent to Larry Gronmeyer at the Naval Oceanographic Office, Building 1002, Code 9421, NSTL Station, Miss. 39529, or phone 601-488-4361.

Chen and Su will receive the Kaminski award for their paper, "Schwarz-Christoffel Theory of Flow Past an Opening," published in the 'Journal of the Hydraulics Division' of the American Society of Civil Engineers. A plaque and $100 award will be presented to each author.

Hayles was chosen from nine nominees submitted in response to a request for nominations mailed to 52 schools in the coastal Mississippi counties, eastern St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana and southern Pearl River County.

Hayles had a 37-year teaching career. She retired from Moss Point High School at the end of the 1982-83 school term.

Her students include 40 nurses, five physicians, 20 engineers and 30 in health-related careers. A $50 award and certificate will be presented.

Wallace was selected in recognition of her 11-years of service to scientific research in her position at National Aeronautics Space Administration, National Space Technology Laboratories head librarian and senior librarian of the Naval Oceanographic Office.

Sigma Xi is an honorary organization founded in 1886 for the purpose of encouraging research in the pure and applied natural sciences, including the physical, life and agricultural, and medical sciences, and mathematics and engineering.

The organization is concerned with the relationship between natural science and the social sciences and humanities and with the impact of scientific research on society.

The current membership includes more than 125,000 scientists affiliated with approximately 500 chapters and clubs across North America.

The Gulf Coast Chapter, established at NASA's National Space Technology Laboratories in Hancock County, consists of 84 members and associate members.

Current officers are Raymond H. Wallace Jr., USGS Gulf Coast Hydroscience Center, president; Charles W. Orr Jr. of NAVOCEANO, vice president; Steve C. McCutcheon, of the USGS Gulf Coast Hydroscience Center, secretary; and Larry K. Gronmeyer of NAVOCEANO, treasurer.

The chapter maintains a multi-discipline list of science lecturers who are available to speak to school, civic, and other groups with interest in the sciences.

The Chapter also provides teams of judges, each representing a different scientific field, for local and state science fairs.

Medical assistants celebrate

Coast Counties Chapter of the American Association of Medical Assistants celebrated National Medical Assistants Week recently with a wine and cheese party at the Woman's Clinic in Gulfport.

Gulfport Mayor Jack Barnett presented a proclamation to Chapter President Ann M. Larkin, and State President Mary Ellen Ladner in honor of National Medical Assistants week which was celebrated throughout the United States.

Chapter members presented a skit titled 'I've Been Working for the Doctor' which was enjoyed by all physicians present says Publicity Chairperson Ann Larkin.

The skit won first place in the most original category at the national convention of medical assistants conducted recently in New York City, she adds.

Quotables by Cuevas

Happy birthday wishes to go our longtime friend Mr. Carl Smith of Bay St. Louis, who celebrated his 97th yesterday recently.

There are not too many folks around who reach such an age.

As many of you know, Mr. Smith still drives his own car, mows his own lawn, rides a tricycle, attends church, and is active in the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club. Just think, he was still active as an insurance man up until a few years ago.

We wish Mr. Smith many more birthdays.

On Thursday of this week, Mr. J. Norton Haas Sr. Recognition Day will be celebrated by the Hancock County Friends of the Library.

Mr. Haas has been an active supporter of the Hancock County Library System for many years.

The recognition will be at the 7:30 p.m. regular monthly meeting of the Friends of the Library, at the Main Branch on US-90 in Bay St. Louis.

The meeting is open to all friends of Mr. Haas.

We are hoping many will attend, as many special events are planned. We know Joe Pilet, coordinator for the Friends of the Library, has been working very hard for the big event.

Many turkeys were stuffed for Thanksgiving, and like us, probably many people were too.

It seems so many diets are forgotten for the holidays, and we have to pay for the overeating during the days and weeks following.

Weight can be gained very easily by some people, and at times I think we do it by only looking at food.

The day was nice for Thanksgiving and we hope everyone enjoyed theirs.

from the Surgeon General

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, Public Health Service

Older persons are the most common victims of a cold weather-related condition called hypothermia which weakens the body and slows the heart rate, according to the Mississippi Council on Aging (MCOA). Hypothermia can cause death and therefore makes winter an especially dangerous time for older adults.

To help older Mississippians cope with the colder weather in the months ahead, MCOA has offered some cold weather health tips that may save a life.

"Hypothermia, a drop in internal body temperature that can be fatal if not detected and treated promptly, is caused by exposure to cold," said Jay C. Moon, MCOA director, "and is common to older persons who have trouble keeping themselves or their homes warm."

Older adults most likely to develop the condition are the chronically ill, the poor who often cannot afford heating fuel and those who do not dress adequately.

There also is a small group of aged persons whose bodies cannot feel cold, which results in a failure of the body to produce heat when needed. This group faces the greatest danger, Moon added.

"The best way to prevent hypothermia is to stay warm," he said. "If room temperatures are cold, dress warmly." MCOA's suggestions to combat hypothermia include setting the heat above 68 degrees Fahrenheit in living and sleeping quarters. "Room temperatures below 70 degrees could be dangerous if persons are not dressed warmly enough," Moon said.

Keep hands and feet warm, and wear a scarf to cover the neck area. Mittens also are suggested because they keep hands warmer than gloves, according to the council.

Older persons are encouraged to wear several layers of loose-fitting clothes that will trap a lot more warm air around the body. Suggested winter fabrics include wool and synthetics rather than cotton.

Electric blankets, hot water bottles and heating pads are ways to keep the bed warm. Wearing extra sleeping clothes also will generate warmth.

Neighbors and relatives are encouraged to look in on older persons who live alone at least once or twice a day during the winter months.

Another way for older citizens to lessen their chance of becoming victims of hypothermia is to eat properly. "Good nutrition is important," Moon said, "Especially in winter. Hot meals and warm beverages add heat to the body."

A word of caution also is necessary for older adults who take prescription medicines. The council advised checking with a physician or pharmacist if medicines such as those prescribed for high blood pressure, nervousness or sleeplessness cause difficulties in keeping warm.

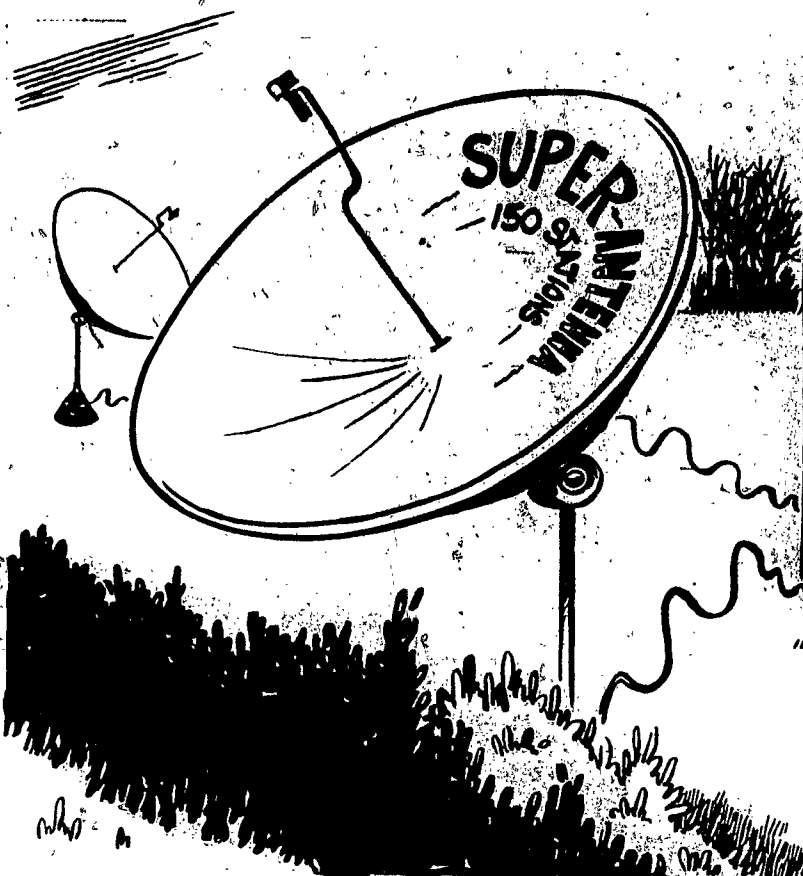

Recognizing some of the signs and symptoms of hypothermia also will be helpful if an older person is suspected of having the condition.

A body temperature below 96 F is dangerous, and the person should get emergency medical help immediately. Other signs to look for include slurred speech, very slow breathing, shivering, trembling on one side of the body or in one arm or leg, cold, stiff muscles, confusion and forgetfulness, puffy face, sluggishness and an unusual change in appearance or behavior during cold weather.

One of the most dangerous things about hypothermia is that it causes the mind to become confused," Moon said, "often to the point that victims don't recognize the danger and don't seek help."

Older adults sometimes die in their homes without ever reaching the hospital because friends or relatives do not recognize hypothermia until it is too late.

For more information about hypothermia or other subjects relating to older persons, contact the Council on Aging by dialing 354-6590.

STATE OF THE ART

The People's Business

Information indicating possible sources of additional, non-tax revenue and savings for the state will be presented in the Mississippi Economic Council's Legislative Forum Series which opens Nov. 29 and continues through the first week of December.

Veteran House Speaker C. B. "Bud" Newman and State Budget Commission Director Jim Cofer will be featured speakers for the Forums, which are sponsored by MEC with the beginning of each new state government administration to bring together business and government to examine critical issues.

MEC Chairman Charles Sewell of Jackson said managing the state's money will be the focus of the Forums. "Without a doubt," Sewell said, "the fiscal crisis is the toughest problem lawmakers will face in 1984. The Forums will allow business and government leaders to examine sources of revenue and expenditures; explore sources of additional, non-tax revenue; and analyze suggestions for more effective use of tax dollars."

Sewell said the viewpoint of business will also be presented on other major issues.

"Questions remain concerning full implementation of the Education Reform Act," said Sewell who added that business is also concerned about protection of tax exemption for manufacturers under the state's industrial revenue bond program.

The largest association of business and professional leadership in the state, MEC has invited the incoming governor, lieutenant governor, and all newly elected officials to participate in the discussions with members of the Council and other interested business men and women.

The meetings, which will each begin at 10 a.m. and close with a luncheon, have been scheduled as follows:

Nov. 29, Holiday Inn Downtown, Jackson; Nov. 30, Ramada Inn, Tupelo; Dec. 1, Ramada Inn, Greenwood; Dec. 6, Eola Hotel, Natchez; Dec. 7, Howard Johnson Inn, Hattiesburg; and Dec. 8, Royal d'Iberville Hotel, Biloxi.

News from the Governor

HIGHWAY SAFETY

Seven steps can help ensure survival in rush-hour traffic, according to the Governor's Highway Safety Program (GHSP).

"The first step is to use your vehicle safety belt," said Ira Lacy, GHSP director. "It is well documented that safety belts can reduce the toll of human death and injury. The quick and easy click of the belt can restrain drivers and passengers from becoming projectiles in the vehicle if it is involved in a crash. The safety belt also can keep occupants from flying outside the vehicle where the chances of serious injury or death are much greater."

GHSP also advised drivers to maintain at least two seconds of traveling time between them and the vehicle ahead. "This will help protect you from an accident if the vehicle ahead should stop suddenly," Lacy noted.

Another step is to be prepared to brake. "Don't delay braking," he said, "and avoid slamming on your brakes." GHSP also cautioned drivers on problems of being "boxed in" by other vehicles. "Try to avoid driving next to other vehicles if possible so you can leave yourself an 'out' if it's needed," Lacy said.

"Never drive while under the influence of alcohol," the GHSP director said. "More than 62 percent of Mississippi's fatal traffic accidents are related to drunk driving."

News from the Governor

A nationwide, coordinated attack on drunk driving and emphasis upon using vehicle safety belts, with a centralized source of information on state programs, was advocated by Roy Thigpen, Mississippi governor's representative for highway safety and vice chairman of the National Association of Governors' Highway Safety Representatives.

Speaking at the recent South Carolina Governor's Conference on Highway Safety in Charleston, Thigpen said "many states and organizations within the states are doing an outstanding job in attacking drunk driving, the most serious of all highway safety problems, and encouraging the use of safety belts. Yet, information on successful approaches to dealing with these two highway safety priorities is not adequately shared from state to state or from one community organization to another."

"Mississippi probably could benefit from what South Carolina is doing," Thigpen said. "A centralized and easily accessible source of information on successful state programs could help all of us. This type of teamwork could make a major contribution to getting drunk drivers off America's highways and saving lives through using safety belts."

"He noted that many states with weak drunk driving laws are studying Mississippi's new drunk driving law, which became effective July 1. They, of course, can gain from this," Thigpen said, "but it might be good for us to be more aware of what's being done in states with even tougher laws."

It might be of interest to know that in South Carolina conviction of a second offense of drunk driving brings a $1,000 fine and 60 days to three years in jail as well as a two-year driver's license suspension.

A second offender in Mississippi is subject to a $400 to $1,000 fine, 48 hours in jail and a one or two-year license suspension.

Thigpen noted approximately 26,000 Americans die and 1.5 million are injured each year as a result of drunk driving. From a national point-of-view, drunk driving and safety belts are the top priority areas of highway safety efforts.

"In the highway safety field, we deal, basically, with three factors - roads, vehicles and drivers. Drivers are, by far, the biggest problem."

"In the highway safety field, we deal, basically, with three factors - roads, vehicles and drivers. Drivers are, by far, the biggest problem."

In 1982, according to Mississippi Governor's Highway Safety Program estimates, at least 365 Mississippians were killed in accidents involving drunk drivers.

"Fastening safety belts, one of the easiest safety measures we can take, could make the difference between living through a vehicle crash or being killed," Thigpen said. "The second crash," that of a human body being thrown against an interior surface of the vehicle or against an exterior surface such as a roadway, is what frequently causes death or serious injury. This could be prevented by having safety belts fastened.

"If states coordinate their efforts," he said, "and have a means of routinely sharing information on combating drunk driving and encouraging safety belt use, it's likely that all states can be more effective in efforts to reduce death and injury on America's highways."

Senator

Thad Cochran

Farm Disaster Eligibility. Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) is sponsoring legislation requiring the government to not count payment-in-kind acreage in determining farm losses for those seeking eligibility for emergency loans due to disastrous weather this year.

This legislation is necessary in view of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's policy decision to count PIK acreage in determining farmers' eligibility for disaster loans," he commented.

He pointed out that USDA spokesmen admitted in recent Senate Agriculture Committee hearings he chaired in Washington that they had already made a policy determination that PIK acreage would be counted as normal yield acres.

At field hearings the Senator had Oct. 31 in Mississippi, he said such a USDA policy could seriously curb the number of farmers eligible for disaster relief in the wake of summer drought and spring rains and floods.

On Nov. 1, USDA, following state and local appeals and the urging of Senator Cochran, declared 48 counties in Mississippi eligible for the emergency farm assistance as a result of this year's adverse weather.

Farmers are required to establish a loss of 40 to 50 percent to be eligible for such disaster relief. If 50 percent of a farmer's acreage was in the PIK program, he would have to have sustained a 50 percent loss in order to qualify for disaster relief.

Senator Cochran joined in sponsoring the bill. He is a member of the Senate from Agricultural States. He is also a member of the Senate from Mississippi.

Library designated part of Arboretum System

The Bay St. Louis Library Memorial Garden on US-90 was recently dedicated as part of a statewide system of arboreta sponsored by Garden Clubs of Mississippi, Inc.

It is the only library in the state to be so designated, according to Mrs. Lelyn W. Nybo, Bay St. Louis Memorial Garden Chairman for the Bay-Waveland Garden Club.

The club has sponsored the Library Memorial Garden since it was initially planted in the spring of 1976.

All plantings have been funded by private contributions with the help of local groups and individuals.

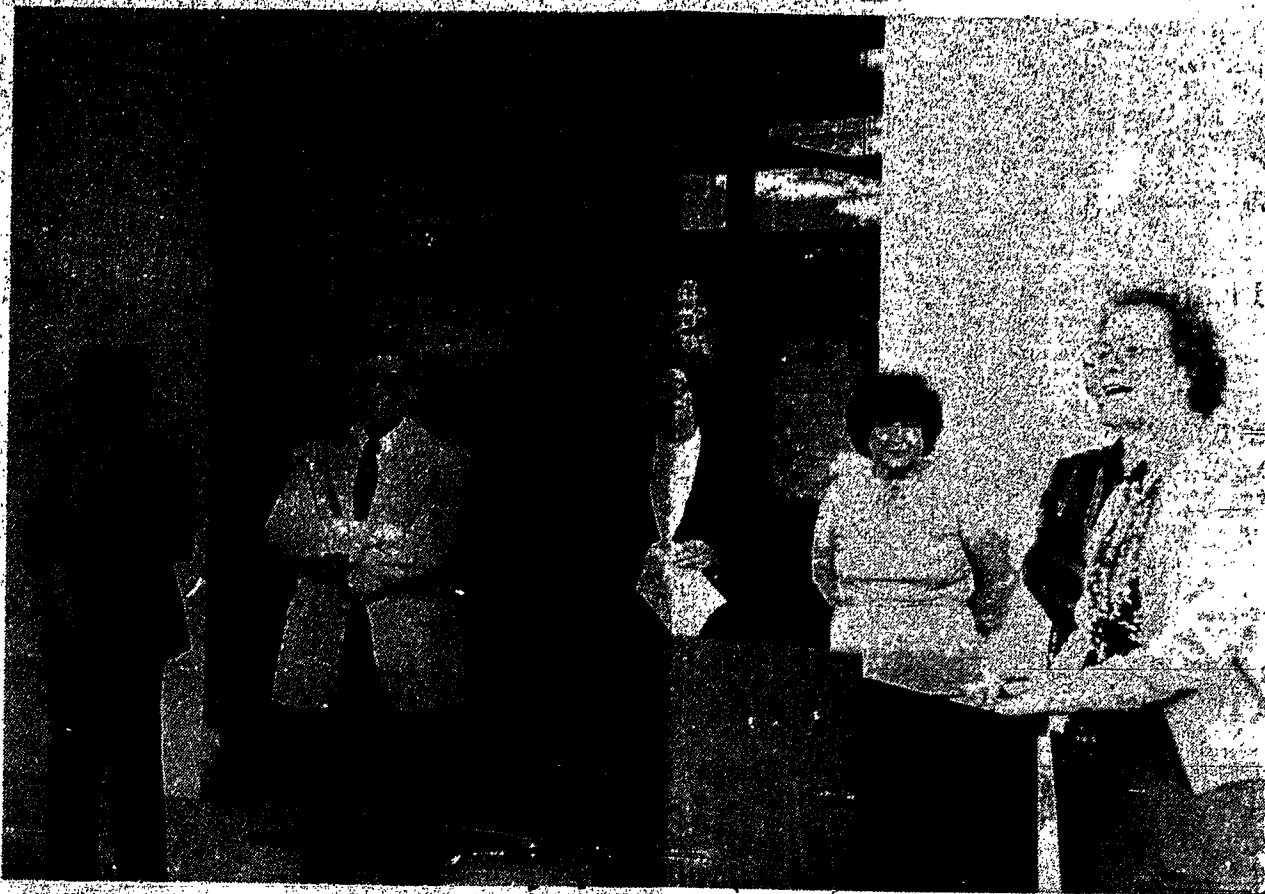

During the past year Mrs. Nybo has served as arboretum chairman to provide labels with common and botanical names for the trees and plants on the library grounds.

The new Arboretum sign was presented at dedication ceremonies by Mrs. Clarence Evans on behalf of the Garden Clubs of Mississippi.

The city is providing crews to maintain the grounds, and plans have been made to add other shrubs, trees and flowers as funds become available.

Groups or individuals who would like to contribute to the fund may contact Mrs. Nybo at 467-7019, or leave a contribution at the library designating it for the Memorial Garden Fund.

Public invited to Pass gospel gathering

Sunday, Dec. 4, singers and lovers of gospel music will gather in Pass Christian for the 27th Annual Gospel Singers of America homecoming and all day gospel singing at the Gospel Singers of America school auditorium, 951 East Scenic Drive.

Singing will begin at 10 a.m. and will feature the Driskell family from Wilmer, Ala.; the Schillings family from Bogalusa, La.; the Holley family from Houston, Tx.; the Papa family of Thibodaux, La.; the Farve quartet of Sumrall; the Mason family of Lucedale; the Southern Star Trio of Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hurt and many others.

If possible, please bring a basket lunch and everyone will eat at noon, a group spokesman said.

The entire day is free to the public and is under the direction of Videt Polk, president of Gospel Singers of America. He will be assisted by all board members.

THE NEWS INTERNATIONAL STYLE—Broadcast Journalist Ford Rowan hosts "International Edition," a new weekly series examining how U.S. news and trends are reported overseas. "International Edition" can be seen at 10 p.m., Fridays, on Mississippi ETV Network.

Wednesday is deadline for insured barley, wheat

Wednesday is the final planting date for insured barley and wheat in Hancock County, says Joan M. McCartney, district director for the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. in Jackson.

"Acres of barley and wheat planted by Nov. 30, insured by FCIC (or by a private company reinsured by FCIC), must be reported by Dec. 15 to receive full crop insurance coverage," she adds.

"Acres planted after Wednesday should also be reported on the Dec. 15 acreage report," in the remarks section, as being planted too late for insurance coverage, she adds.

"Producers should realize the importance of filing an accurate acreage report with their agent because it determines the amount of premium," she says.

Prior to planting the crop, insurance protection was established on the basis of an estimated number of acres. The filing of the acreage report finalizes the insurance contract by establishing accurate acreage insured," McCartney reports.

Farmers wishing to discuss local conditions, such as excessive moisture, that may affect planting should contact their local, authorized crop insurance agent as soon as possible, she adds.

Youth basketball players to register

Registration for the fall-winter basketball leagues sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Parks and Playground Commission will be held Dec. 2 and 3.

Registration will take place at the Valena C. Jones gymnasium on Old Spanish Trail. Girls and boys between the ages of 8 and twelve may register Friday, Dec. 2 from 5-7 p.m. or Saturday, Dec. 3 from 10 a.m. to noon.

Registration for 13- to 17-year-olds will be conducted Saturday, Dec. 3 from noon until 2 p.m.

Coordinator for the basketball leagues is Robert Thomas.

Pass Navy sailor nets NO assignment

Charles W. Parkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Parkinson of Pass Christian, joined the Navy in January and will soon be returning home to his home to serve his country.

Parkinson completed basic training in Orlando, Fla., and in February went on to Naval Air Crewman Candidate School also in Orlando.

Learning basic survival and physical conditioning in all the elements on land and in the sea, Parkinson was awarded a certificate of initiative after completing the school. He was also cited for his athletic skills and endurance.

In April he travelled to Millington, Tenn., where he attended aviation anti-submarine warfare school.

At this school the Pass resident learned to operate airborne electronic equipment used in detecting, locating and tracking submarines. He also learned to operate radar used to provide information for aircraft.

THE MORMONS

Waveland Ward

Church of Jesus Christ

of Latter-Day Saints

NEW MISSIONARY

The Hancock County area recently received a new missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Waveland Ward.

Elder Bruce Hawkins, 23, joined Elder Joachim Krylbom, who has been serving in this area for the past four months.

The two young men will spend approximately 70 hours weekly helping people learn more about the gospel of Jesus Christ, church spokesman Patty Balder says.

"I'm excited about working here," Hawkins says, "The people of this area are very nice and friendly."

Talking about his mission, which began approximately 10 months ago, Hawkins adds, "Since I have been on my mission I have truly grown to love the Savior. I just want the sweet people of this area to know that I know that The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is true and ask that they might have a desire to hear our very special message that we have been commissioned by our Savior to share with them."

Like all missionaries for the church, Hawkins receives no pay for his labors. He is instead supported entirely by savings previously accumulated and money donated by his family.

He will serve a total of 18 months on his mission.

Transfers to different cities are made every few months by mission headquarters in Baton Rouge, La.

Hawkins is originally from Florence, Ariz., where his family still resides.

He attended Ricks College in Idaho for two years, majoring in welding engineering.

Before volunteering for his mission he worked as a welder and also drove a tractor-trailer truck for his father's rodeo company. He has also participated in the rodeo for the last 10 years.

When he completes his term of service, he plans to attend Arizona State University to gain his bachelor's degree. To do so he hopes to earn the cost of his education by driving a lumber delivery truck.

Anyone wishing information on the church and its members may contact Hawkins and Krylbom at 467-7875, or Waveland Ward Bishop Daniel Sones, 467-4834.

Diamondhead gardeners slate Christmas party

The Diamondhead Garden Club met Wednesday, Nov. 16 in the Mississippi Room of Fairway Villa.

Mrs. R.B. Bostright, president, called upon the following chairmen for reports:

Mrs. William Neff, birds chairman, gave an informative talk on the wren.

Mrs. Thomas Heier Jr. reported on butterflies.

Mrs. Lloyd Bell said that the Junior Garden Club would meet at the Baptist Church where they would be given instructions by a few garden club members on the art of making Christmas decorations.

She also introduced her daughter, Christy, who had been sent to Horticulture Summer Seminar last summer, sponsored by the Diamondhead Garden Club. Christy gave a thumbnail sketch of the week's activities at the seminar, and thanked the club for sending her.

Mrs. William Temple, conservation and ecology chairman, spoke on many of the endangered species, some of which are the American bald eagle, the ivory billed woodpecker, the falcon, the sandhill crane and several others.

Mrs. James Feirich, scrapbook chairman, said she had brought 1981-82 and '83 scrapbooks for club members to look over if they wished.

Horticulture chairman, Mrs. Harold Morris, gave many pertinent tips on gardening at this time.

Because of the inability of obtaining a Mardi Gras, the members voted that there would be no float this year.

Memorial Gardens chairman, Mrs. Hilaire Ogden, said the Memorial Garden had been cleaned completely and a new magnolia tree planted.

Pilgrimage chairman, Mrs. Howard Mitchell, reported that she has six homes for the pilgrimage, and her information for the Coast Council Pilgrimage brochure has been sent.

Membership chairman, Mrs. W.H. Marshall said we had now reached the limit of 99 members, and introduced the following new members:

Mrs. Norman Pallet, Mrs. Vera Harvey, Mrs. Floyd Dreas, Mrs. R. Garic Toca, Mrs. H.D. Bustetter, Mrs. Ernest Barber, Mrs. John Velkas, and Mrs. LaRose Eddy.

Parliamentarian Mrs. Joseph Finley, read a proposed change to the by-laws which will be voted on at the next meeting.

In order to get all members of the club involved in its activities, the president asked that each one volunteer their services to help with a committee of their choice; she also said a letter would soon be sent to all members giving them the exact requirements of maintaining their names on the club roster, and urging all to fulfill the requirements.

A Vegetable Garnish

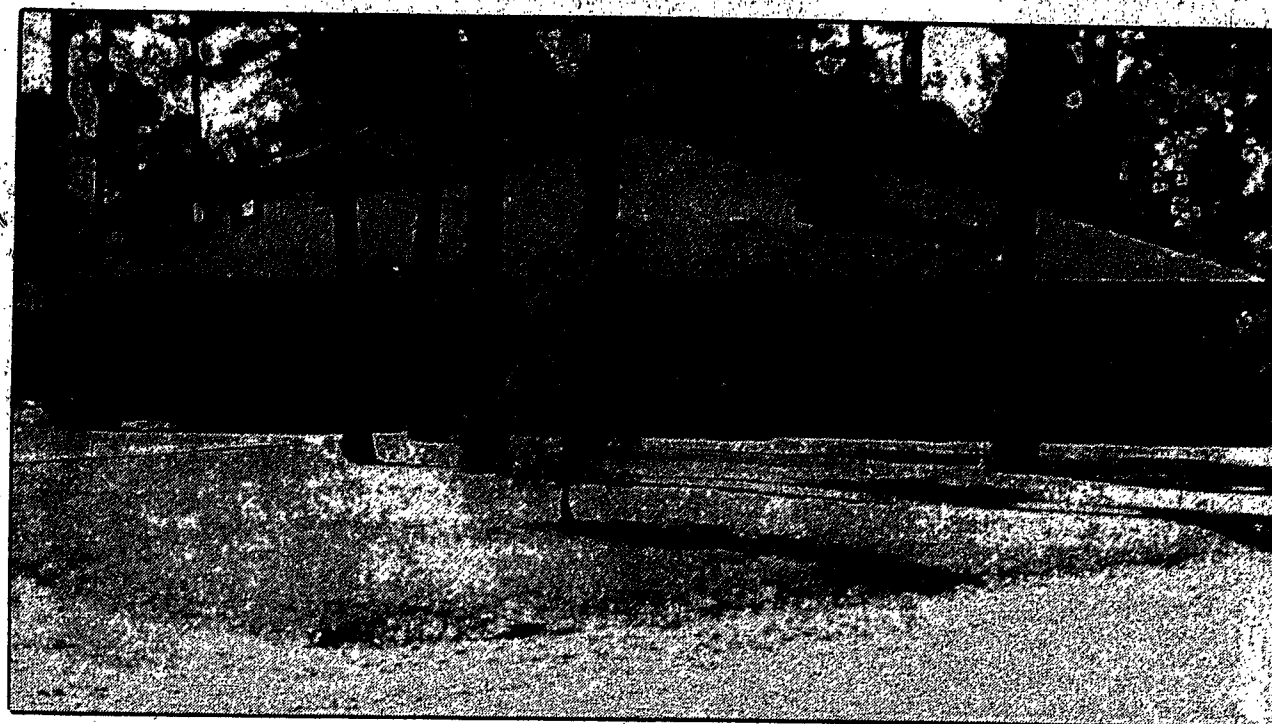

Workshop was given at the home of Mrs. L.R. Wallace on November 22.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mr. T.D. Ashman; it will be a Christmas party and each member is to bring a covered dish and also a gift for an aged man or woman.

Guests introduced were: Mrs. Fred Logan, Mrs. H. Knoss, Mrs. C.H. Stout, Mrs. L. Whalen.

The Arrangement-of-the-Month was made by Mrs. Betty Teller, and titled "Thanksgiving - Be Thankful." It was pointed out by Mrs. C.A. Evans, Mrs. Joseph Finley and Mrs. Frances Mayfield.

The program was given by Mrs. Joseph Finley, who described in-depth correct procedures for making a terrarium - using many different shapes and types of containers. She explained how each should be handled to be a success.

Cabell, Nowell to wed Dec. 17

LINNE CABELL AND ALAN NOWELL

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Cabell of Bay St. Louis announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Linne Therese Cabell, to Dennis Alan Nowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton S. Nowell of Gulfport.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Our Lady's Academy, where she was listed in Who's Who in American High School Students. Miss Cabell was Tennis State Champion in 1981-82. She is a sophomore at Jefferson Davis Junior College and is employed at McDonald's.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Gulfport High School. He was a Decatur state officer and Demolay Past Master. Mr. Nowell is a sophomore at Jefferson Davis Junior College, where he is a counselor. He is employed with Value Rent-A-Car.

The couple will solemnize vows December 17 in a 1 p.m. ceremony at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

On Junior Auxiliary tour

Oriental items, figurine collection featured at Coogan, Favre homes

"Christmas in the Orient" will be the theme of the home of Mrs. Beverly Coogan, 200 Bismark Street in Bay St. Louis, which will be open during the third annual Christmas Tour of Homes, sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Junior Auxiliary. The tour this year will be held Sunday, Dec. 4, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Other houses scheduled to be open on the tour include the homes of Mrs. Faith Koger, 348 Main Street; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Favre, 231 Felicity Street; and Mrs. Gloria Forstall, 1198 North Beach, all in Bay St. Louis.

The Landmark Townsquare Restaurant, 210 Main Street in Bay St. Louis, will serve as this year's House of Good Cheer, and will feature a Christmas boutique of hand-made gifts and baked goods made by Auxiliary members.

Overflowing with Oriental items, the Coogan home was built in 1980, and contains open, airy rooms that let the sunshine in and accentuate the feeling of comfort and security.

Obtained during travels throughout the world, the home features an Oriental fan collection in the master bedroom and a display of Christmas ornaments from various countries in the kitchen.

The sunken living room has a fireplace, above which is a collection of Oriental plates. The Christmas tree also has ornaments handmade by the owner through the years.

The guest bedroom and adjoining bath, which are separated from the rest of the house for privacy and comfort, are done in airy colors, and feature a 75-year-old dresser set.

"A Christmas Collection" is the theme of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Favre, 231 Felicity Street in Bay St. Louis.

The home blends the past with the present, and has numerous figurine collections from all over the world obtained through travels in the military.

There are antiques, such as the fainting couch and buffet, which date back at least 100 years, and the antique pump organ.

The owner also did her own brass rubbing from the tomb of an English king while in England, and it hangs in the upstairs foyer.

Built in 1978, the house features five bedrooms and three baths, one of the bedrooms being a great room upstairs.

All of the rooms emit easy, comfortable living, and the figurine collections help pass the time.

A handmade candlewick quilt will also be given away during the tour, and tickets may be purchased from any Junior Auxiliary member.

Tickets for the tour, which cost $10 per person, will be available in advance from Ellen Kane Gifts, The Family Tree or any auxiliary member. They will also be available the day of the tour.

Businesswomen attend membership tea

Local businesswomen gathered at the home of Mrs. Barbara Joe Fitch Sunday, October 16 for the Bay-Waveland Business & Professional Women's annual membership tea. Guests included BPW District II Director Jane Lassiter, and BPW State Treasurer Katherine Pucheu both of Bay-Waveland area.

Candidates chosen to represent the local organization in the BPW sponsored Young Careerist Program next March were announced. Candidates are Alice Ladner, Coast Electric, and Mary Ann Pucheu both of Bay-Waveland area.

An invitation was extended to club members to attend a reception on Saturday, October 22 at Gayfer's. This annual event recognizes club presidents and Gayfer's Career Woman of the Year during National Business Women's week.

The purpose of the Bay-Waveland Business & Professional Women's Club is to become active in the community, especially in the area of education. Membership is open to all working women living in the Bay-Waveland area.

Local officers are: Vickie Powell, president; Pam Baumgartner, vice president; Pat Viguerie, secretary; and Barbara Jo Fitch, treasurer. BPW meets every other Tuesday, 6:30 p.m., at the Waveland Resort Inn.

Court procedures discussed at legal secretaries meet

Verta Lee Swetman, deputy in charge, U.S. District Court, Biloxi, was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Harrison-Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association. She discussed federal court procedures and recent changes in filing certain pleadings.

PAGEANT WINNER—Whitney Lynn Karl, daughter of Annette Karl recently won first place best fashion award in the Tiny Miss Beauty Pageant held at the Hancock County Fairgrounds. In recent months Whitney has won first alternate in the Sea Coast Beauty Pageant held in Gulfport and first alternate and most photogenic in the Queen of Hearts Beauty Pageant held in Gulfport.

FIRST BIRTHDAY—Jessica A. Bates, daughter of Charles and Rachel Bates of Bay St. Louis, celebrated her first birthday November 14 with a smart theme party at her home. She is the grand daughter of Margaret Cuevas and George Genna and Betty Becker and Eloy Bates, all of Bay St. Louis.

The Gulf Coast Carnival Association, which has sponsored Mardi Gras Day parades in Biloxi since 1908, launched its 1984 season recently with a Fall get-together at Biloxi Community Center.

Some 200 sponsors, former royalty, committee and guests attended the shrimp, wine and beer social, a group spokesman reports.

Capt. Lloyd Moon welcomed guests at the informal event and announced this year's carnival festivities which will include a breakfast, an innovation this year, at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum following the Coronation Ball, the spokesman says.

Also speaking briefly at the program was Tommy Silman, who discussed reservations and sponsored tables.

Mardi Gras 1984 will be celebrated Tuesday, March 6. Entertainment was provided at the get-together by the Terry and Patty Ryan duo.

Republican women's group hears report

Vera B. Sentilles of Pass Christian, alternate delegate to the National Federation of Republican Women's Convention, gave a report on the meetings held in Louisville, Ky., at a recent meeting of Harrison County Chapter.

Also attending from the Coast Chapter were Ruby

Life, state president; Esther Barrett and Mary Bankston.

President Ronald Reagan was the guest speaker. He opened his speech with a list of things the Republican Party had done for women, such as electing them to high offices and appointing them to important positions," Sentilles reported.

"Most of all, he pointed out, 53 percent of American women now work to support themselves and their families, making their stake in the economy as important as much as anyone else, she added."

Bay native, former teachers here included in St. Joseph jubilarians

Some 11 jubilarians of the Congregation of Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille, New Orleans Province, will be honored at an Eucharistic Liturgy on Sunday, Dec. 4, at 3 p.m., at St. Frances Cabrini Church in New Orleans.

Rev. Donald Blanchard, chaplain of the Louisiana State University Baton Rouge Student Center, will be principal celebrant. A reception will follow immediately after at Redeemer Auditorium, 1453 Crescent Street in New Orleans.

Observing her diamond jubilee is Sister Louise Raphael Elliot.

Golden jubilarians are Sisters Andree Raymond and Augustine Sudkamp. Silver jubilarians are Sisters Ann Barker, Stephanie Bourgeois, Judith Courtie, Marlene Favre, Barbara Hughes, Frances Landry, Anne Michelle Ramagos and Anita Tircuit.

Sister Louise Raphael, born Leah Marie Elliot, a native Orleanian, entered the congregation in 1922.

She received her BA degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio and her master's in education from Loyola University in New Orleans.

After several years of teaching in Cincinnati, she was appointed principal and served in this capacity from 1926 to 1960 at the St. Joseph Academies in New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, and in a congregation operated school in Cincinnati.

Although retired since 1975 at the Provincial House in New Orleans, Sister Raphael has taught in the People Program—a program for retired persons sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Sister Andree Raymond, born Lucille Raymond in New Orleans, entered the congregation in 1931.

She received her BS in Education from Loyola in New Orleans, and her master's degree from Catholic University. Sister Andree's ministries have been in education and administration, having taught and served as principal in elementary and secondary schools in Louisiana and Ohio. She also served as Dean of St. Joseph Junior College in New Orleans.

After spending five years as executive housekeeper at the Fontbonne in Cincinnati, Sister Andree's apostolate has been and is presently at the Provincial House in New Orleans as administrator and maintenance supervisor.

Sister Augustine Sudkamp, born Cora Mae Sudkamp in Simsboro, La., entered the congregation in 1931.

After nine years of teaching elementary grades in schools in New Roads, New Orleans and Baton Rouge, she taught piano, chorus, shorthand and typing at St. Joseph's Academy in Baton Rouge, and piano and chorus for 12 years in Bay St. Louis at St. Joseph Academy and Our Lady of the Gulf.

Sister Augustine was organist for the children's choir at Sacred Heart School in Baton Rouge.

Both her bachelor's and master's degrees in music were received from LSU in Baton Rouge.

Talented in her field of music, Sister Augustine received a commendation in 'International Who's Who' in music.

Presently, she is serving as secretary-receptionist of the Sisters of St. Joseph School in New Orleans.

Sister Ann Barker, born Eula Ann Barker in Thibodaux, La., received her nursing diploma from Mercy Hospital School of Nursing and her BS in biology from Nicholls University.

One of two nuns who were the first in the history of LSU School of Medicine to become doctors, Sister Ann received her degree in 1979.

Her health career has taken her from nursing in Houma, New Roads, Baton Rouge and New Orleans to, more recently, residency in family medicine.

She chose family practice as a specialty because it offers a broader field of service and is currently employed by the

New Orleans Inner-City Clinic

Sister Stephanie Bourgeois was born in Mission, Tex., but spent all of her youth in Morganza, La.

After graduating from St. Joseph's Academy in New Orleans, she entered the novitiate and began preparation for future ministry.

Sister Stephanie has been involved in secondary education in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, in campus ministry at LSU in Baton Rouge, in adult religious education in the Diocese of Baton Rouge and in social work at St. Louis Community Center in New Orleans.

She received her BA degree from Dominican College and her MA degree from the University of Notre Dame.

Sister Judith Courtie, a native of New Orleans, received her BS degree in education from Dominican College and a master's degree in religious education from Notre Dame Seminary.

Since entering the congregation, Sister Judith's apostolate has been in education. She taught in New Orleans at Holy Rosary, St. Frances Cabrini and St. Rita, Harahan; and in Baton Rouge at Sacred Heart, where she has served as principal since 1978.

Sister Marlene Favre, a native of Bay St. Louis, has spent most of her religious life in the classroom, having taught in New Orleans at St. Rita, Harahan, St. Rose and St. Frances Cabrini; in New Roads at Catholic High School; in Pontre Coupee; and in Baton Rouge at St. Thomas More. Sister Favre served as housemother at the Sisters of St. Joseph Children's Home in Baton Rouge for several years.

In 1971, she received her BS in education from Dominican College.

Sister Barbara Hughes, although born in Dunnellon, Fla., was reared in Morganza, La., and graduated from Morganza High School.

She received a BA in history from Dominican College, an MA in history from Xavier University, and a PhD in modern European history from St. Louis University.

She is presently professor of history at Xavier University where she has served since 1969.

Prior teaching assignments were at St. Joseph Academy in New Orleans, St. Joseph Junior College and St. Mary's Dominican College.

Sister Hughes currently serves on the policy board of the New Orleans Province of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Sister Frances Landry, a native of Morganza, La., is a graduate of the Morganza High School.

She attended St. Joseph Junior College, and received her BS from Dominican College.

Her apostolate has been in the field of education. Sister Frances has taught elementary grades in New Orleans schools of Holy Presently, she is serving as receptionist at St. George School in Baton Rouge.

Sister Anne Michelle Ramagos, born in Morganza, La., received a BA from St. Mary's Dominican College and a master's degree in communication arts from the University of Notre Dame.

While her ministry has been in the field of education, some assignments have taken her out of the classroom into other branches.

Sister worked with the Franciscan Communications Center in Los Angeles and in pastoral liturgy at the University of Notre Dame.

Her early teaching was in elementary schools operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph, including St. Ann, St. Rita, Harahan and Bay St. Louis, as well as New Orleans' high schools including St. Joseph Academy and St. John Prep.

Sister Anne Michelle is presently director of the Media Center at Loyola University in New Orleans.

Sister Anita Tircuit was born in Morganza.

She received a BA in history from Dominican College, a master's in religious education from Notre Dame Seminary, and an MSW degree from Catholic University of America.

She has taught in schools operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph in New Orleans; St. Rose and St. Rita, Harahan; Sacred Heart in Norco; and St. Joseph's Academy, St. George and St. Thomas More in Baton Rouge.

More recently, her ministry has been in parish and social work. Presently, Sister Anita is administrator of the St. Charles Branch of Associated Catholic Charities.

Pass man youngest of trooper grads

An increased number of state troopers on the highways including one from Pass Christian.

The State Highway Patrol recently graduated 27 new officers from the Law Enforcement Officer's Training Academy in Rankin County.

The youngest cadet graduating from this class was Fred Keel, 22, of Pass Christian.

The oldest cadets to graduate are Raymond Delk, Waynesboro; David Johnson, Winona; and Otis Kaufman, Biloxi, all 31.

Keel was also class president.

His duty assignment is the Bay St. Louis area.

Gov. William Winter addressed the cadets during graduation ceremonies at the academy gymnasium.

"Most of the newly commissioned cadets are assigned to patrol in the southern part of the state because of the expected increase in tourist traffic association with next year's World's Fair in New Orleans," Col. Donald Butler, chief of patrol, says.

There are currently 40 vacant sworn officer positions on the Highway Patrol, he reports.

The 27 graduating cadets were among a total of 62 recruits who began a rigorous training program at the academy on Aug. 9, he adds.

The curriculum includes criminal law, tactical operations, radio procedure, firearms training, drug identification and other law enforcement specialties taught over a 16-week period.

HGH nurse earns corporate award

Sharon Lambert RN, at Hancock General Hospital in Bay St. Louis, was recently presented the 1983 Dr. Frist Humanitarian Award by Phil Langston, hospital administrator.

The award was established in 1972 as a living tribute to Dr. Thomas F. Frist, one of the three founders and first president of Hospital Corp. of America, the hospital's management firm.

The honor is presented annually to one employee at each HCA-affiliated hospital who has made significant contributions to the improvement of patient care, who has demonstrated unusual concern for the welfare and happiness of patients and who has performed extraordinary acts of kindness, a hospital spokesman explains.

Lambert, day clinical supervisor in the nursing department, received her nursing diploma from Emmanuel Hospital School of Nursing in Portland, Ore., and has accumulated a total of 19 years experience in the field of nursing.

She served in the Army Nurse Corps, as a visiting nurse and in clinics across the country.

She worked at Methodist Hospital in New Orleans as a staff nurse, infection control nurse and assistant director of nursing.

Lambert has worked at Hancock General for the past seven years, serving as infection control nurse and day shift supervisor.

From July to November, she served as interim director of nursing before assuming the position of day clinical supervisor.

"Sharon has shown herself to be a most admired person among all the employees at Hancock General," said Langston, "and her modesty and sense of responsibility to her community and our patients are truly worthwhile traits. She is dedicated to the hospital, and also to its goal of assuring that its patients receive the highest level of quality care."

"Sharon was nominated by the employees here at Hancock General," he continued, "and we are proud of her daily contributions to the hospital, its patients, employees, visitors and the community itself."

St. Rose de Lima

Catholic Church Parish News

By Fr. B.C. Keller
We spend much time and talent in preparing for careers, for marriage, for war, for retirement. The coming of Jesus Christ challenges us to constant readiness for the only event that deserves all our energies.

The family of the recently deceased James Booker is grateful for the sympathy showed by parishioners of St. Rose de Lima.

Congratulations to the recently commissioned extraordinary ministers of Communion. Those serving the next three years include Hazel Breaux, Geraldine Edmondson, Sister Rose Martin Glenn, George Hicks, Brian Labat, Loretta Labat, Westley Labat, Betty Lizana, Lucinda Lizana, Marie Mercadel, Bernadette Mitchum, Joan Mitchum, Georgia Singleton, Derrick Smith, Judith Tate and Sister Helen Marie Yockel.

Congratulations to the following young parishioners who made the Beta honor roll at Bay High School including Petra Hicks, Leslie Lizana, Veronica Mitchum and Wayne Raboteau. Keep up the good work!

The only religious instructions this week will be for fifth graders on Wednesday at 3 p.m. Regular classes will resume next week.

The Gospel Choir will practice Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.; the Little People Choir, Saturday at 10:30 a.m.

The St. Rose Alumni Association will meet Wednesday at 7 p.m. in rectory.

The Padre Pio group will meet Saturday in church at 5:30 p.m.

Next weekend elections will take place for our parish council during the Masses. The present council will meet along with the newly elected members on Thursday, Dec. 8, at 7 p.m. in our meeting room behind the school.

This afternoon at 3 p.m. the Les Damoselles award ceremony will take place in our church. A college scholarship will be awarded and recognition will be given to adult service to youth in community.

MASS SCHEDULE
Sunday, 7 a.m., 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Daily, Monday through Saturday, at 6:30 a.m.

Saturday (Vigil) at 6 p.m. Mother of Perpetual Help Novena at beginning of Tuesday Mass.

Confessions are heard half-hour prior to weekend Masses and upon request.

Central Baptist receives new pastor

Central Baptist Church at 1203 US-90 West in Bay St. Louis, recently received a new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. Mooney.

Mooney came from Kosciusko, where he pastored Shiloh Baptist Church and also led a radio and publication ministry.

He has been a minister for more than 20 years and has pastored churches in Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi.

Mooney holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Bible Theology and is also a student of 'end time prophecy.'

He is presently offering a series of messages from Matthew, Chapter 24, at the 11 a.m. worship service.

The public is invited to services at the church.

RSVP report

By EVE McDONALD
SUPER FISH FRY
We are all most thankful for Kare Mitchell and his Silver Creek Catfish House crew for 169 dinners for senior citizens and 16 dinners for our staff. We also appreciate the help in serving the meals from the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, our volunteers and eight Hancock County officials.

Supervisor Jimmy Travirca was out shaking hands with everyone and asking how we liked his hush puppies and Supervisors Sammy Pernicario and Roger Dale Ladner were busy bussing tables.
Chancery Clerk Mike Necaize, Tax Assessor-Collector Eddie Murtagh, Sheriff Ronnie Peterson and Justice Court Judge Bruce Necaize were all helping serve plates and getting them to the guests.

Princess Fahey brought door prizes from Edmond Fahey Funeral Home in Bay St. Louis and these were appreciated by the three winners.
At the end of the dinner, Mitchell and his crew were given a round of applause for such a delicious and generous dinner.

Thanks to you...
it works...

Governor proclaims home health week

Gov. William Winter has proclaimed Monday through Friday as Home Health Services Week.

Home Health Services are recognized as a vital component of the health care delivery system in Mississippi, says Bill Kehoe of the Mississippi Hospital Association.

"Home health care has many advantages over institutional care. Home health is less costly, plus the patient is at home with family. A home health agency can provide for rehabilitative services in the home while observing and evaluating changes in patient's health status. Additionally, home health services permit the family and patient to participate in the patient's care," he states.

The advantages of hospital-based home health goes beyond the basic advantages. With hospital-based home health, there is immediate availability of comprehensive in-house services, Kehoe reports.

The continuity of care found in hospital-based home health provides for a smooth transition from inpatient to home health and there is no break in services because of personnel changes, he says.

Hospital-based home health allows for a closer availability of Medicare staff because of the close working relationship with the hospital, and there are comprehensive in-service and continuing education opportunities for home health agency staff, Kehoe adds.

There are 18 hospital-based home health care agencies in Mississippi.

Weekly story hour program set Thursday

Pre-school children are invited to attend story hour every Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the City County Library in Bay St. Louis.

Story hour is a program of picture books, films and other activities geared to children three to six years old.

"Henny Penny" by Paul Galdone begins the program. "Ten Little Ducklings," a finger play, will be performed between stories.

"Round Robin" by Jack Kent is the second book to be read. The story hour will conclude with the motion picture film, "Changeling."

HEIRS AT LAW OF CHARLES E. COX, JR., CHARLES E. COX, JR., ANNA BELLE COX

SUMMONS

CASE NO. 16,829

To the Heirs at Law of Charles E. Cox, Jr., Charles E. Cox, Jr., whose address is 448 Metairie Lane Avenue, Metairie, La. 70002.

You have been made Defendant in the lawsuit filed in this Court by Thomas R. Klopff and Ruth M. Klopff, Petitioners, whose address is Rt. 6, Box 302F, Golden, Colorado 80403.

The Petition filed against you has initiated a civil action alleging that Charles E. Cox, Jr. and Anna Belle Cox are the sole heirs at law of Charles E. Cox, Sr. and seeking legal adjudication of the heirs of Charles E. Cox, Sr.

You are required to mail or hand deliver a copy of a written Answer either admitting or denying each allegation in the Petition to Robert L. Genn, Jr., Petitioner's Attorney, whose address is P.O. Drawer 71, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

YOUR ANSWER MUST BE MAILED OR DELIVERED NOT LATER THAN THIRTY DAYS AFTER THE 4TH DAY OF December, 1983, WHICH IS THE DATE OF THE LAST PUBLICATION OF THIS SUMMONS. IF YOUR ANSWER IS NOT SO MAILED OR DELIVERED, A JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT MAY BE ENTERED AGAINST YOU FOR THE RELIEF DEMANDED IN THE PETITION.

You must also file the original of your Answer with the Clerk of this Court within a reasonable time afterward.
